

4th Industrial Revolution
INCUBATOR

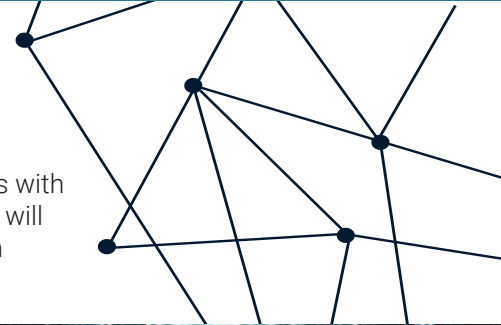

Re-imagine the future!

4IRI
Mpumalanga
DIGITAL HUB

Apply for our Incubation Programme

The Fourth Industrial Revolution Incubator's objective is to develop the talent of SMMEs with technological advancement value propositions to tackle the ever disruptive future. This will enable them to drive economic growth in priority industries brought about by the fourth industrial revolution.

Who can apply?

SMMEs in these industries can apply:

Blockchain Technology | Software Development | ITC | Cloud Technology | Aerospace | Artificial Intelligence Robotics and Machine Vision | Biotechnology | Additive Manufacturing | Drone Technology | Financial Technology

Incubation Criteria

To participate in this programme, SMMEs need to complete and submit an application form. The applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Technology-based companies with disruptive solutions in the market ready to expand.
- Companies with a sound business case.
- Companies with solutions or products with the potential to uplift society.
- Companies with solutions or products that are globally relevant and impactful.
- Companies that focus on technology relevant to the 4th industrial revolution, i.e. AI, IoT, Robotics, Fintech, Aerospace, Advanced Engineering, Space Technology, etc.
- The company's directors must be prepared to sign a two (2) year incubation agreement with 4IRI.
- The business should have traded for at least one year.
- Business owners must be South African citizens.

How to Apply

Visit www.4iri.co.za or email info@4iri.co.za

4IRI Service Offerings

- 1 Develop prototypes and business ideas
- 2 Conduct research and product development
- 3 Plan strategic path to commercialisation
- 4 Working capital and developing a conducive ecosystem
- 5 Business services and de-risking
- 6 Training and mentorship in upskilling technicality of SMMEs
- 7 Create a nexus between markets and funders

4IRI commissions new strategies to reactivate rising economies.

Riverside Office Park,
Block 5. Nelspruit

